Now, Yoshioka, we collaborated with a song, we just finished recording it there and she's in Japan. And she sent us over her tracks... it's been a cool little collaboration. I think that'll be really exciting once that comes out. She's really an amazing singer.

Hard in after the vlog wrap. Do not start on Turtle Soup. Caption later: Dreamy. Out 11 Sep. Do not say out now.

POOL · NOT THIS POST

Same file. Same standing. Different song.

05:35 → 05:51

I released Overthinking in April. Next song out I think is going to be Turtle Soup. And that's another acoustic one, so that's before we launched the whole produced sound.

Already used as A4. Do not stick this on a Dreamy cut. Hard stop 05:54. 06:35 they don't know it's me is produced-sound, not tonight.

I just arrived in Blanka's studio house. I'm sweating buckets. And the reason for this trip is doing a collaboration with Nao Yoshioka. She did her parts a few days ago. Basically I'm here now to do my parts. Literally arrived here about 30 minutes ago.

Hard out 00:49. At 00:50 he says the song is for Blanka's album. Do not burn that unless you mean it. A6 from EDIT-DAY. Now a Dreamy name-her cut.

WITH BLANKA · HELLO BOYS

00:00 → 00:44

Hello boys and girls. I'm forcing them to do this now... we finished the first recording session of my vocal for the song with Nao... we're going to share it with Nao on WhatsApp. She's in Japan.

Jump Melt / last track of his album if it sits in this clip. Send Blanka the file.

A5 just-talk (same yapping file 01:04 → 01:25) is not about the project. Leave it.
