Lovechild – Music by Pablo Basstos (?), Killian Reybrand, Dan Amozig, Blanka. Lyrics and melody by Darragh Hoare

I wanna catch those eyes
I'm yours and ready
Can you take the weight?
These goods are heavy
Sweet with the cinnamon spice
Mine still sparkles in the glass with the ice
I'm still trying to find the time to find out what's inside Isn't that something That you would like?

Well theres another one in your eye
It's locked and loaded
You say it's not much but
You got me exploding Steady with the one two to step to the side Hands on the knees
then push em up high
Think I found the time
Think I found the time

CHORUS
Yeah you're my love child
Always gonna the chase yeah
Still put it out on a plate yeah yeah
Youre my love child
Wont need much to take me
Your bodies gonna leave me shaking yeah yeah

With your hair like that I'm hypnotised
You pull it right back
So I hold to the side
Bodies naked
Hearts is racing
Baby I can't wait to taste it
Cos you build up my confidence
I really cant remember when Time with you where we pretend
You know its true say the word and Ill be there for you

I know it too
Without your love, I'm lost baby,
I'm Lost baby

Cos cos you're my love child
Always gonna take the chase yeah
Still put it out on the plate yeah, yeah
Wont need much to take me

you're my love child
Wont need much to take me
